
The Wines of Molinelli/Le Celata
Emilia Romagna, Italy

BATTAGLIA
DELLA
TREBBIA
GUTTURNIO

- Le Celata/Molinelli from the Emilia Romagna in Italy. The winery was established by the Molinelli family in 1846.
- The current generation, Luigi, is an artist and a bit of a maverick in the Italian wine world. He makes luscious, rich Barberas, Bonardas, and crisp Malvasias.
- Luigi's labels are very modern with names for the wines that draw from history and literature.
- Luigi is one of the only Italian winemakers to also embrace the stelvino closure.

Battaglia Della Trebbia 2007

The name of this wine translates from Italian to the "Battle of Trebbia". The wine was named after a decisive battle in the 2nd century BC in which Hannibal vanquished the Romans at the River Trebbia. This wine is a blend of 65% Barbera and 35% Bonarda, aged in American oak. On the palate, dark cherry and blackberry fruits with well integrated tannins and good acidity on the finish. 2,500 cases produced. 14.5% Alc. 8 grams RS/L.

Polveriera 2008

The name of this wine translates from Italian to "Powder Magazine." In the vineyard there was once an building for storing gun powder. Today, you can still see the ruins of the Magazine. Polveriera is 100% Barbera that has been aged in French oak for 9 months. Ink black in color with dark cherries and plums on the nose. On the palate, rich dark fruit combines with well integrated tannins for rich, long finish. 666 cases produced. 15% Alc. 6 grams RS/L.

Moretta 2008

The name of this wine translates from Italian to "Lady in Black." Midnight black in color and sexy and seductive is this sweet Italian red. Made from 100% Bonarda. Luscious black cherry and blackberry fruit combines with soft tannins for a wine with a velvety texture and long finish. 666 cases produced. 12% Alc. 75 grams RS/L.