

Molinelli/
Le Celata
2007
Battaglia
Della Trebbia

HANNIBAL'S WINE!

The name of this wine translates from Italian to the "Battle of Trebbia". The wine was named after a decisive battle in the 2nd century BC in which Hannibal vanquished the Romans at the River Trebbia. This wine is a blend of 65% Barbera and 35% Bonarda, aged in American oak. On the palate, dark cherry and blackberry fruits with well integrated tannins and good acidity on the finish.

Molinelli/
Le Celata
2007
Battaglia
Della Trebbia

HANNIBAL'S WINE!

The name of this wine translates from Italian to the "Battle of Trebbia". The wine was named after a decisive battle in the 2nd century BC in which Hannibal vanquished the Romans at the River Trebbia. This wine is a blend of 65% Barbera and 35% Bonarda, aged in American oak. On the palate, dark cherry and blackberry fruits with well integrated tannins and good acidity on the finish.

Molinelli/
Le Celata
2007
Battaglia
Della Trebbia

HANNIBAL'S WINE!

The name of this wine translates from Italian to the "Battle of Trebbia". The wine was named after a decisive battle in the 2nd century BC in which Hannibal vanquished the Romans at the River Trebbia. This wine is a blend of 65% Barbera and 35% Bonarda, aged in American oak. On the palate, dark cherry and blackberry fruits with well integrated tannins and good acidity on the finish.

Molinelli/
Le Celata
2007
Battaglia
Della Trebbia

HANNIBAL'S WINE!

The name of this wine translates from Italian to the "Battle of Trebbia". The wine was named after a decisive battle in the 2nd century BC in which Hannibal vanquished the Romans at the River Trebbia. This wine is a blend of 65% Barbera and 35% Bonarda, aged in American oak. On the palate, dark cherry and blackberry fruits with well integrated tannins and good acidity on the finish.