
The Wines of Hans Igler Burgenland, Austria

- Situated two hours south of Vienna in the town of Deutschkreuz, Weingut Hans Igler is located in the wine region of Mittelburgenland, a region known as Blaufränkisch country.
- In Austria, Weingut Hans Igler is considered one of the top red wine estates. In the 1980's the estate pioneered the use of barrique-aging in Austria.
- Igler produces a full-range of wines, from inexpensive to premium reds to refreshing white wines. Today, the daughter of Hans Igler, Waltraud Reisner-Igler, operates the estate.
- "CELLAR SELECTION" 92 points awarded to the 2007 Biiri Reserve Blaufränkisch - Wine Enthusiast
- 90 points awarded to the 2007 Vulcano - Wine Enthusiast
- 92 points awarded to the 2006 Vulcano - Wine & Spirits
- 91 points awarded to the 2005 Vulcano - Wine Enthusiast
- 90 points awarded to the 2004 Vulcano - Wine Enthusiast
- 90 points awarded to the 2005 Biiri Blaufränkisch Reserve - Wine Enthusiast
- 89 points awarded to the 2004 Blaufränkisch Ried Hochberg - Wine Enthusiast
- "BEST BUY" - 2006 Blaufränkisch Classic - Wine & Spirits

Blaufränkisch Classic 2006

The Classic is the starting point for the Igler Blaufränkisch wines. Bold and spicy and blackberry, cassis and cracked pepper on the finish. Great wine for burgers and brats on the grill. BEST BUY - Wines & Spirits

St. Laurent 2006

St. Laurent is thought to be a cousin of Pinot Noir. The grape does share some similarities on the nose to Pinot, but in the glass it is a whole other animal. Dark purple in color. On the palate, more robust with black fruits instead of cherries. If you are a Pinot lover, you need to try St. Laurent.

Vulcano 2007

Vulcano is a cuvée of 60% Blaufränkisch, 25% Cabernet Sauvignon, 10% Zweigelt and 5% Merlot. Aged 15 months in French barriques. The wine is dark ruby-garnet in color with delicate cherry tones on the nose. Erupting with red berry flavors and a medium-long finish slightly spicy finish. 90 points - Wine Enthusiast.

