

Weingut Josef Ehmoser Donauland, Austria

- Situated 45 kilometers west of Vienna in the village of Grossweikersdorf - Tiefenthal, Weingut Josef Ehmoser is a top Grüner Veltliner producer in the wine region of Donauland.
- “The young vintner Josef Ehmoser ranks among the recent rising stars of the Austrian wine scene”, Falstaff’s Austrian Wine Guide 2002.
- Year-after-year, his famous Grüner Veltliner Aurum is consistently rated as one of the top white wines in Austria. The 2001 Grüner Veltliner Aurum received 93 points from both Gault Millau and the Falstaff Austrian Wine Guide. The 2002 was awarded 92 points and the 2003 Aurum rated 94 points in the Falstaff Austrian Wine Guide.
- 92 points - 2008 Grüner Veltliner Aurum - Wine Enthusiast
- “TOP 100 BEST BUYS OF 2007” - 89 points - 2006 Grüner Veltliner von den Terrassen - Wine Enthusiast
- “CELLAR SELECTION” 91 points - 2006 Grüner Veltliner Aurum - Wine Enthusiast
- 90 points - 2006 Pinot Blanc - Wine & Spirits
- 92 points - 2005 Grüner Veltliner Hohenberg - Wine Enthusiast
- “EDITOR’S CHOICE” 91 points- 2004 Grüner Veltliner Aurum - Wine Enthusiast

Grüner Veltliner Von den Terrassen 2009 - This wine is considered a classic wine from the Wagram. The wine has delicately spicy fruit and fresh, vibrant, peppery finish.

Grüner Veltliner Hohenberg 2009 - A single vineyard wine, the grapes for this wine come from Ehmoser’s best vineyard, the Hohenberg. The loess soil and low yields produce highly ripe fruit with multi-layered aromas and rich, full-bodied flavors. 89 points Wine Enthusiast

Grüner Veltliner Aurum 2008- Ehmoser’s top-of-line Grüner Veltliner - Fully ripe Veltliner grapes were harvested for this wine through a painstaking selection process. Low yields and high ripeness, as well as partial fermentation in oak barriques, creates a wine with mouthwatering spiciness and supple mellow fruit. Only 500 bottles available for export. Rated 92 points Wine Enthusiast.

Pinot Blanc 2009 - On the nose, herbs and flowers. On the palate, the wine expresses green mango, apple and pear matched with intense minerality and well-integrated acidity on the finish. 89 points Wine Enthusiast