

Pittnauer
2008
St. Laurent
Dorflagen

BEST BUY

89 POINTS! – WINE ENTHUSIAST

St. Laurent is a grape found in Austria and southern Germany that is related to Pinot Noir, but it is much bigger in style than most pinots. Sometimes St. Laurent is compared to a big Central Otago Pinot Noir from New Zealand. Fruit-forward style. Dark cherries and blackberries on the palate.

Pittnauer
2008
St. Laurent
Dorflagen

BEST BUY

89 POINTS! – WINE ENTHUSIAST

St. Laurent is a grape found in Austria and southern Germany that is related to Pinot Noir, but it is much bigger in style than most pinots. Sometimes St. Laurent is compared to a big Central Otago Pinot Noir from New Zealand. Fruit-forward style. Dark cherries and blackberries on the palate.

Pittnauer
2008
St. Laurent
Dorflagen

BEST BUY

89 POINTS! – WINE ENTHUSIAST

St. Laurent is a grape found in Austria and southern Germany that is related to Pinot Noir, but it is much bigger in style than most pinots. Sometimes St. Laurent is compared to a big Central Otago Pinot Noir from New Zealand. Fruit-forward style. Dark cherries and blackberries on the palate.

Pittnauer
2008
St. Laurent
Dorflagen

BEST BUY

89 POINTS! – WINE ENTHUSIAST

St. Laurent is a grape found in Austria and southern Germany that is related to Pinot Noir, but it is much bigger in style than most pinots. Sometimes St. Laurent is compared to a big Central Otago Pinot Noir from New Zealand. Fruit-forward style. Dark cherries and blackberries on the palate.